NOVEMBER 20, 2022
OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

Reflection question:

In what ways can I proclaim God's praise in the coming week?

Today's Readings

First Reading — David is anointed king of Israel (2 Samuel 5:1-3).

Psalm — Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord (Psalm 122).

Second Reading — The Father delivered us to the kingdom of his beloved Son (Colossians 1:12-20).

Gospel — The repentant criminal receives Jesus' promise of Paradise (Luke 23:35-43).

THE TRUE KINGSHIP OF JESUS CHRIST

What kind of King is Jesus? How do you envision him? Remembering that they were promised a king from the line of David, the Israelites hoped for a Messiah who would set their political problems aright and bring about a worldly kingdom of Judaic power. Even Psalm 122 seems to describe this type of ruler. Luke's Gospel today shreds that image after the whip of the Roman soldiers tore at Jesus' flesh. Still, the Romans flaunted the traditional notion with their ironic inscription above King Jesus' crown of thorns. Soldiers and ordinary people jeered the royal title at him. Yet the throne of Jesus was the cross of Christ, from which he dispensed kingly mercy and justice toward the humble criminal who shared his execution. Writing to the Colossians, Saint Paul describes the truth about Jesus and his kingship, using words like fullness, peace, and forgiveness. So let us go rejoicing!

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

I rejoiced because they said to me,
"We will go up to the house of the LORD."
— Psalm 122:1

Today'sVerse:

You yourselves are our letter, written on our hearts, to be known and read by all. - 2 Corinthians 3:2

I have a precious letter that I carried in my wallet for many years until it became so worn the folds were creased from having read it so much. I finally took it out of my wallet and put it in a box for safekeeping. It was a letter from my late husband and he had written it from his hospital bed. I found it several days after his passing when I was going through the bag that held his belongings from the hospital. My hands shook as I read it and tears rolled down my cheeks. It wasn't a long letter, but the words were so heartfelt and full of love that they said everything I needed at the time. I still get choked up thinking about it, that letter was very precious to me and still is. He was my everything. But through my grief journey, I learned that God is "my everything," and so began my reading of another love letter; the Holy Bible. Just when I thought my life was over another one began. The Bible sustained me through tough times and it is still my ultimate "love letter" today. So when life is hard, turn to our Lord He is our life and love. - Commentary by Anna Pachaud

The Saint John of God Prayer

Dear God, through the intercession of St. John of God, patron of the poor and the sick, grant me the grace this day to greet every person that I meet with understanding and compassion. Reveal to me their needs and give me the means to inspire in my heart the humility and generosity of St. John so that I might be to them a revelation of God's Love. Amen.

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe
Last Sunday in Ordinary Time
Almighty ever-living God, whose will is to restore all things
in your beloved Son, the King of the universe,
grant, we pray,
that the whole creation, set free from slavery,
may render your majesty service
and ceaselessly proclaim your praise.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.
